

support the concept of national community service, and I commend each of the participants who will provide much-needed assistance to communities all over the country.

The AmeriCorps team will be working on two projects both of which will help rebuild rural America and protect the environment. The first project, headquartered at the Bad River watershed area in Ft. Pierre, SD, involves five members of the AmeriCorps team, and focuses on range and water quality improvements, as well as youth and adult education projects. The second project on the Rosebud Reservation involves a 10-member team which is helping with locally identified projects. These projects include range improvement, water quality activities, and other locally identified natural resource improvement projects.

I am confident that the experiences of the participants as members of AmeriCorps will establish a lasting ethic of civic duty in each of them. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I wish to recognize each member of the second AmeriCorps team of South Dakota: Matthew Blumer, Ft. Pierre, SD; Kevin Boyd, Rosebud, SD; Roger Brush Breaker, Rosebud, SD; Michele Edelbach, Ft. Pierre, SD; Harvey Elk Looks Back, Rosebud, SD; Paula Hoerner, Ft. Pierre, SD; Kathy Knife, Rosebud, SD; Lester Leader Charge, Rosebud, SD; Joseph Nichols, Ft. Pierre, SD; Clarence Poorman, Rosebud, SD; Pat Buscher, Ft. Pierre, SD; John Sitting Bear, Rosebud, SD; Melvin Staples, Rosebud, SD; Richard Traversie, Rosebud, SD; and Emily White Hat, Rosebud, SD. I am confident that the work of these individuals will not only provide much-needed assistance to the Rosebud Reservation and the Bad River watershed project, but also that the next year will be immensely rewarding for each of the participants. I congratulate each participant on their commitment to service and to furthering their education—I firmly believe that education is essential to a productive life and vital to American efforts to remain a first-class economic power.

Today, I would also like to commend the USDA for its innovative and extensive participation in AmeriCorps, and the members of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe. AmeriCorp-Team USDA provides for a truly unique partnership involving tribal, State, and Federal Government, and this effort will address a lot of the traditional native concerns for the environment. So, as the GOP threatens to terminate funding for AmeriCorps, I am proud that rural enhancement and environmental protection is taking place in the great State of South Dakota and I believe that these programs are examples of why the continuation of the AmeriCorps program is critically important.

IN APPRECIATION OF DR. HARRY SCARR

HON. CARDISS COLLINS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 15, 1995

Mrs. COLLINS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I join with Chairman BILL CLINGER in expressing our deepest sympathy to the wife and children of Dr. Harry Scarr, the Deputy Director of the Census Bureau.

Dr. Scarr is one of those outstanding individuals who devoted his professional time and energies to making the Federal Government work better to serve the public. Trained at Harvard and the University of Michigan, Dr. Scarr chose to devote his considerable talent to public service, and we are all the better for it.

There are a number of sensitive positions in the Federal Government that require a manager with both skill and tact. Dr. Scarr held several of those posts. During the 1970's he worked at the Department of Justice guiding policy and planning decisions for research and statistics on the Federal Justice System. Among the positions he held there were the assistant director in the Office of Policy and Planning, administrator of the Federal Justice Research Program, and Director of the Bureau of Justice Statistics.

In the 1980's he moved to the Department of Commerce Economic and Statistics Administration. He subsequently was appointed Deputy and then Acting Director of the Census Bureau. Dr. Scarr brought stability to the Census Bureau which was without a director for a year and a half.

The Federal Government has many dedicated and hard working employees. The dedication and contribution of Dr. Harry Scarr was among its best.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE SECOND SOUTH CENTRAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM GRADUATION CEREMONY

HON. ESTEBAN EDWARD TORRES

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 15, 1995

Mr. TORRES. Mr. Speaker, on November 17, 1995, the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund [MALDEF] will hold its second South Central Leadership Program Graduation Ceremony. At the ceremony, 100 graduates of the program will be honored for their successful completion of the program and dedication to community service in the South Central Los Angeles area.

This year were four projects: the Youth and Parent Empowerment Conference, the Citizenship Conference, the Economic Development Conference, and Alternative Methods for Education. The Youth and Parent Empowerment Conference deserves special merit for its collaborative effort with the leadership development in inter-ethnic relations program. The Citizenship Conference, with assistance from the National Association of Appointed and Elected Officials [NALEO], resulted in the processing of more than 100 applications for citizenship. The Economic Development Conference, working with L.A. Councilman Mark Ridley Thomas' district 8, enlisted several organizations, such as Bank of America, the Mexican American Opportunities Foundation, and the University of Southern California, to name a few, and designed new strategies and opportunities for local economic growth. The alternative method for education project, using the Montessori School Model, shared the successes of the tested and innovative approach to education.

The South Central Leadership Program is another example of MALDEF's efforts to help the Latino community build and strengthen the social, economic, and political infrastructure in this neglected area of Los Angeles. Through the program's grassroots leadership training and support of existing and emerging community based organizations, MALDEF plays an important role in opening new doors of access for Latinos.
